

Virtualware

QUALITY POLICY

In Virtualware, WE ARE committed to be the supplier of choice by exceeding customer expectations with innovative products, world class quality, value and services. We consider essential to manage the resources in the best way, that will drive us to achieve the excellence.

Sustainability is part of our philosophy, we are seeking to be a sustainable company, that will make the company grow with our clients and specially with the people that belong to Virtualware.

As a global company, we recognize and embrace Social Responsibility: Targeted, sustainable commitment is an integral part of Virtualware´s identity as a company. That is why we are actively committed to different internal initiatives in areas of our scope: innovation, sustainability and people management, applying equality and conciliation policies.

Consistent with the policy of delivering a solutions that meets or exceeds the needs and expectations of our clients and stakeholders. The whole team is committed to enhance customer satisfaction and improve the effectiveness of our Quality Management System, continually assessing our performance, legislative requirements, the evolving needs of our business and adapt and improve our processes.